Worship Leader Dr. Wendy Porter

Dr. Wendy Porter is currently the Director of Music and Worship at McMaster Divinity College where she shapes and leads worship at the chapels and teaches in the areas of music and worship. She performs at retreats and conferences and in worship services and concerts. She also works as a consultant on music and worship at the local, regional, and national levels and gives seminars on the subject of worship.

Directions

From Toronto, Oakville, Burlington: Take Highway 403 to the Main Street West exit. At the traffic lights at the top of the ramp turn left and then immediately right on Newton Avenue. Continue to King Street. Cross King Street on to Sterling Street and proceed up Sterling to the McMaster Campus.

From Kitchener/Waterloo: Take Highway 8 to the Town of Dundas. Proceed along King Street straight through the town and this will become Cootes Drive. Proceed along Cootes Drive. Proceed along Cootes Drive to Main Street. At the traffic lights turn left onto Main Street. At the second set of lights turn left (there are two left turn lanes - you want the right-hand one for Forsyth) and then immediately turn right onto Forsyth. Follow Forsyth to the second stop sign and then turn left into the campus.

From Brantford and London: From Brantford travel Highway 403 to the Aberdeen Street exit. Proceed along Longwood Road to King Street. Turn left at King Street and go to the second traffic light. For entrance to the East Campus turn right onto Sterling Street and proceed along Sterling to McMaster University.

Parking

All sessions and registration will be held at Council Chambers, Gilmour Hall (room 111). Parking is available at McMaster University at a flat rate of $3.50.
