Winter Semester 2012

Class Schedule. Tuesdays & Thursdays @ 3:30pm-5:00pm

Course Description

This course is a continuation of HEB2A03 and is an introduction to more grammar, syntax and vocabulary of the language of the Hebrew Bible. There will be continued emphasis on morphology (words and their forms) and syntax (how words fit together to make coherent sentences). There will also be a strong emphasis on acquiring a broad vocabulary for continued reading in the Hebrew Bible. The knowledge acquired should enable the student to read the simple prose and poetry of the Hebrew Bible.

* N.B. The study of Hebrew is very challenging for most students but is very rewarding for those who persevere. You should plan on spending 1-3 hours every day preparing for and reviewing material covered in class.

Course Objectives

Knowing

- To memorize a solid beginner's vocabulary
- To know the basic forms of Hebrew words
- To know how to use grammars and dictionaries for studying biblical Hebrew

Being

- The value of knowing the original language of the Old Testament gives access to in-depth research and exegesis of biblical texts
- The student's life will be enriched by the access to culture that knowledge of another language brings

Doing

- In this course students will have begun to translate many texts directly from the Hebrew Scriptures
- Students will have built a foundation for a lifetime of fruitful engagement with the Hebrew Scriptures

Required Textbooks

- Gary D. Pratico and Miles V. Van Pelt. Basics of Biblical Hebrew Grammar. Grand Rapids, Mich: Zondervan, 2001.
- Gary D. Pratico and Miles V. Van Pelt. Basics of Biblical Hebrew Workbook. Grand Rapids, Mich: Zondervan, 2001.

Course Requirements

10% - Workbook Exercises

22% - Quizzes (2% per quiz) Top 11/12 quizzes count toward final grade

33% - Grammar Tests (3% per test) Top 11/12 quizzes count toward final grade

30% - Final Examination

5% - Recitation of Memorized Psalm

Thursday Vocab Quizzes

At the beginning of class each Thursday there will be a vocab quiz covering material up to and including the chapter covered in last class. These quizzes will simply ask for the English translation of up to 20 Hebrew words.

Tuesday Grammar Tests

At the beginning of each Tuesday class there will be a grammar test covering material up to and including that covered in the previous class. These tests will include both grammar and vocabulary. They may include sentence translations, grammar explanations or diagramming, paradigms, and parsing etc.

Workbook Exercises

Each chapter in the textbook has a corresponding chapter in the workbook. Once a chapter has been covered in class, students must then complete the corresponding workbook pages before the next class. The professor will periodically ask that workbook pages be turned in for marking. Both the textbook and workbook must be brought to every class!

Workbook exercises will be handed in for grading. The actual pages from the exercise book can be torn out (or photocopied) and stapled together to be submitted (in legible handwriting). At the top of the first page please be sure to write your name, the professor's name and the due date of the workbook sheets

Classroom Behaviour

Attendance

- Students are expected to be on time to class or ready to give an explanation for their tardiness to the professor.
- Students are also expected to stay for the entire class session, unless arranged in advance with the professor.

Participation

- Students are not to carry on off-topic conversations in class.
- When students are called on by the professor only the student addressed should voice an answer unless the professor offers the question to the whole class.
- All student participation in way of comments or questions must be done without disrespect or ridicule
- Students may eat or drink in class if they do not distract others and they clean up their desks.

Policy for Missed Quizzes or Tests

There will be no make up for missed quizzes/tests except in the case of illness or serious family crises.

College Style for Submission of Written Work

All written work is to be submitted in accordance with the McMaster Divinity College Style Guide for Essays and Theses, available on the McMaster Divinity College website.

Inclusive language

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all of its publications. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. The NRSV and TNIV are examples of the use of inclusive language for human beings. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments.

Academic dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one's own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one's academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College.

Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. If you are a Divinity College student please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty ~ www.madciv.ca/regs/honesty.php.

If you are a University student please refer to the McMaster University Academic Integrity Policy, specifically App 3 located at (www.mcmaster.ca/senate/academic/ac_integrity.htm)
