

Students Visiting MacDiv on a Letter of Permission

If you are intending to register at McMaster Divinity College as a visiting student and intend to have your course grade transferred to your home university upon completion, please ensure the following is in place.

1. All new students to McMaster Divinity College are required to go through an admission process. For information on admission and to download the Application for Admission, please see our website at <http://www.macdiv.ca/prospects/requirements.php>.
2. A letter of permission is required from your home university giving permission for the course to be transferred to your program.
3. Students must register their courses through the Registration Office, Room 210, McMaster Divinity College. Tuition fees are to be paid at the time of registering.
4. In order to have your grade transferred at the end of the session, please submit a transcript request form to McMaster University Registrar's Office. <http://www.macdiv.ca/students/forms.php>
