Winter Semester 2010

Class Schedule: Tuesdays & Thursdays @ 3:30pm-5:00pm

Course Description:

This course is a continuation of HEB2A03 and is an introduction to more grammar, syntax and vocabulary of the language of the Hebrew Bible. There will be continued emphasis on morphology (words and their forms) and syntax (how words fit together to make coherent sentences). There will also be a strong emphasis on acquiring a broad vocabulary for continued reading in the Hebrew Bible. The knowledge acquired should enable the student to read the simple prose and poetry of the Hebrew Bible.

* N.B. The study of Hebrew is very challenging for most students but is very rewarding for those who persevere. You should plan on spending 1-3 hours every day preparing for and reviewing material covered in class.

Course Objectives:

Knowing:

- To memorize a solid beginner's vocabulary
- To know the basic forms of Hebrew words
- To know how to use grammars and dictionaries for studying biblical Hebrew

Being:

- The value of knowing the original language of the Old Testament gives access to in-depth research and exegesis of biblical texts
- The student's life will be enriched by the access to culture that knowledge of another language brings

Doing:

- In this course students will have begun to translate many texts directly from the Hebrew Scriptures
- Students will have built a foundation for a lifetime of fruitful engagement with the Hebrew Scriptures

Required Textbooks:

- Gary D. Pratico and Miles V. Van Pelt. Basics of Biblical Hebrew Grammar. Grand Rapids, Mich: Zondervan, 2001.
- Gary D. Pratico and Miles V. Van Pelt. Basics of Biblical Hebrew Workbook. Grand Rapids, Mich: Zondervan, 2001.
- William Lee Holladay. A Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament: Based upon the Lexical Work of Ludwig Koehler and Walter Baumgartner. Grand Rapids, Mich.: Eerdmans, 1988.

Textbook Purchase:

All required textbooks for this class are available from the College's book service, READ On Bookstore, Room 218, McMaster Divinity College. Texts may be purchased on the first day of class. For advance purchase, you may contact READ On Bookstores, 304 The East Mall, Suite 100, Etobicoke, ON M9C 5K1: phone 416-620-2934; fax 416-622-2308; e-mail books@readon.ca. Other book services may also carry the texts.

Recommended:

Use of the "Flashworks" program which can be found on the CD-ROM which is included with the textbook. It will install on both Windows and Mac platforms.

Course Requirements:

20% - Workbook Exercises

20% - Quizzes (2% per quiz) Top 10 of 11 quizzes count toward final grade

30% - Grammar Tests (3% per test) Top 10 of 11 tests count toward final grade

25 % - Final Examination

5 % - Recitation of Memorized Psalm

Tuesday Vocab Quizzes:

At the beginning of class each Tuesday there will be a vocab quiz covering material up to and including the chapter covered in last class. These quizzes will simply ask for the English translation of up to 20 Hebrew words.

Thursday Grammar Tests:

At the beginning of each Thursday class there will be a grammar test covering material up to and including that covered in the previous class. These tests will include both grammar and vocabulary. They may include sentence translations, grammar explanations or diagramming, paradigms, and parsing etc.

Workbook Exercises:

Each chapter in the textbook has a corresponding chapter in the workbook. Once a chapter has been covered in class, students must then complete the corresponding workbook pages before the next class. The professor will periodically ask that workbook pages be turned in for marking. Both the textbook and workbook must be brought to every class!

Workbook exercises will be handed in for grading. The actual pages from the exercise book can be torn out (or photocopied) and stapled together to be submitted (in legible handwriting). At the top of the first page please be sure to write your name, the professor's name and the due date of the workbook sheets

College Style for Submission of Written Work

All written work is to be submitted in accordance with the McMaster Divinity College Style Guide for Essays and Theses, available on the McMaster Divinity College website.

Inclusive language:

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all of its publications. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. The NRSV and TNIV are examples of the use of inclusive language for human beings. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments.

Academic dishonesty:

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one's own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one's academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College.

Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. If you are a Divinity College student please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty ~ www.madciv.ca/regs/honesty.php.

If you are a University student please refer to the McMaster University Academic Integrity Policy, specifically App 3 located at (www.mcmaster.ca/senate/academic/ac_integrity.htm)
